

A Casual Encounter with Nick Bantock (Mentorship and Creative Conversation) March 26th to April 4th 2016

A Casual Encounter with Nick Bantock (Mentorship and Creative Conversation) March 26th to April 4th 2016

If you would like to spend time in Southern Spain relaxing with Nick and seven other curious souls, Nick says “This casual gathering set in Andalusia, offers the opportunity to immerse yourself in contemplation of the creative—an eating drinking, thinking, talking, walking, dreaming space where you can discuss art, writing, the universe and everything.”

If you have a project, a book, a series of paintings, or any other grand idea in embryo, or if you feel blocked and just want to chat about ways of breaking free, Nick will be there to encourage and help you.

“This is not a workshop, but instead, more of a caravanserai designed to nurture imagination and the other Rights of Spring.

In this Spanish Salon you will also encounter Chef Mike Powell’s magnificent cooking, local wines, provocative dinner conversation, music, the beautiful environment of Frigiliana, a lovely little town perched just in from the Mediterranean Sea, and during a days sojourn to Granada the chance to explore the city, its architecture, its flamenco, and its magnificent...shoe-shopping.

On the other hand, if you merely wish to snooze by the pool, that too is utterly up to you.”

Last but not least...for those interested, Nick will read and talk about his new Griffin and Sabine book, The Pharos Gate (not published till later in 2016).
